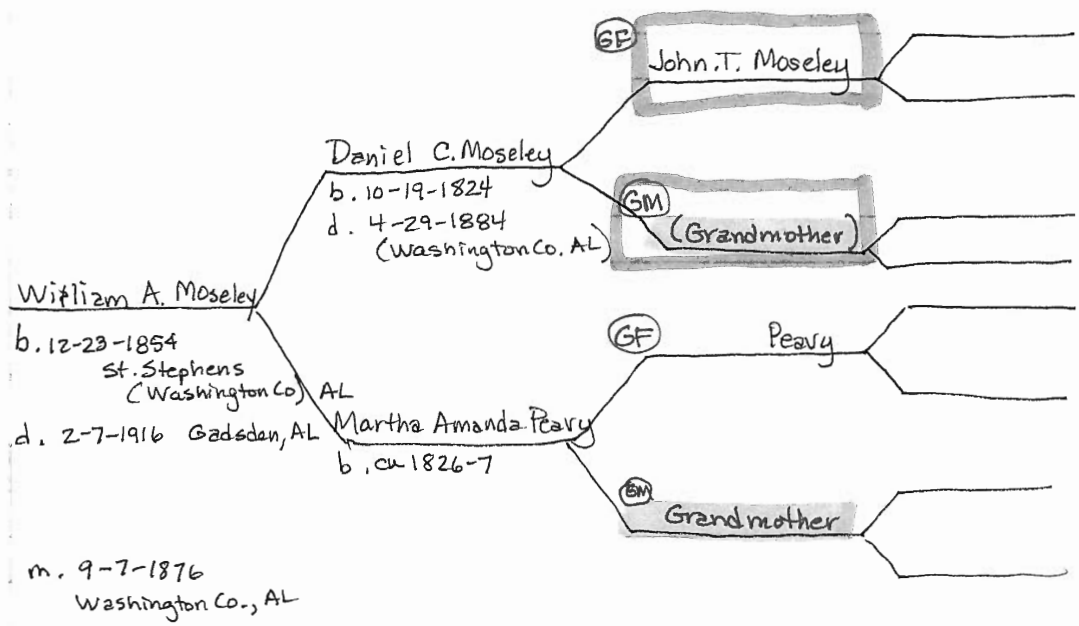
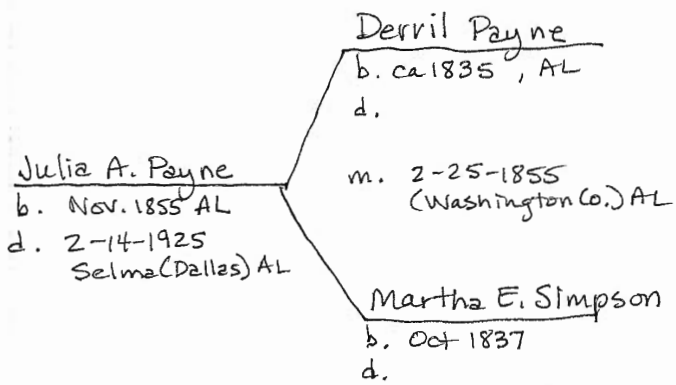
I think James LaFoy might have been his father-in-Law

Grandparents of William A





Assuming the information enclosed about William A. Mosley is correct, which grandfather was an early emigrant to this county from GA and which "grandmother was a membe of the well known French family of LaFoys"?

I have NO proof, but I think it is the 2 Moseley grandparents. Could his wife's maiden name have been LaFoy?

My major sources of information:

1. The History of Washington County (Alabama) Vol. I & II
2. Additional publications of the Washington County Alabama Historical Society
3. Census records
4. Land records
5. Cemetery visits
6. Wills

I am enclosing several copies of documents that provide pieces of the puzzle:
Who was John T. Moseley?
Who were his parents?
Who was his wife? Was there only one?
Who were his children?
etc.

Name: MOSELEY, John T. (ID= 2169)
Born: ??? 1783 Where: VA
Died: 2 Feb 1864 Where: (Washington) AL
Remarks: Brenda Castle sent me the information on John T. Moseley that included Mary W. Montague - her father & John T.'s parents with everything pointing to (Powhatan) VA. Here are the clues that brought about the deductions: "Marriagesof Powhatan County, VA 1777-1830" by Catherine L. Knorr, lists the marriage of John T. Moseley & Mary W. Montague, Dau. of Mickleborough Montague on 1 Dec. 1825, pg 98." "Abstract of Goodspeed's Mississippi" pg. 440, lists the following: Moseley, John T.,b in Powhatan Co. VA in 1797. son of William & Rebecca (Townes or Townsend) Moseley, married Mary W. Montague. Moved to Kemper Co. MS in 1835." Goodspeed also lists: Moseley, John T., Jr. B. Kemper Co.MS in 1845. Son of John T. & Mary W. Moseley. In Civil War. AND --Moseley, William BA 1767 in VA. Lawyer. m. Rebecca Townes." This is too good to be true !!! I hope that it will pan out. SRM 11/1992.

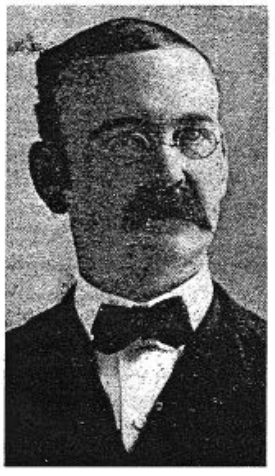
Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Moseley



Mr. W.A. Moseley

Mrs. W.A. Moseley

In Washington county, with its great area of square miles, its thoughtful and honorable people, every man who has ever declared his sovereign rights at the polls, or who has ever taken an interest in the administrative affairs of this county, knows well of Mr. Wm. A. Moseley. It is unnecessary to make a minute biographical mention of Mr. Moseley, but suffice it to say he is of French extraction and a native of Washington county. He was born and reared in the county, only about four miles from where he now resides, first seeing the light of day December, 1854. His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. D.C. Moseley were also raised in this county, his father dying in 1884, but his mother still survives and resides with him at St. Stephens, having attained the age of 77 years. His brother, Dr. D.C. Moseley, is a successful practicing physician at Faunsdale, Ala.; Mr. Moseley's grandfather was an early emigrant to this county from Georgia, while his grandmother was a member of the well known French family of LaFoys.

After gaining a very good common school education, Mr. Moseley in 1876 married Miss Julia Payne, a splendid young lady who was educated at Barton Academy. They have one daughter, Miss Lola, a charming young lady who is an accomplished musician. Shortly after his marriage Mr. Moseley at the age of 21 years, was appointed to fill out an unexpired term of the office of Sheriff and Ex-Officio Tax Collector, and to which office he was elected to succeed himself, serving three years. In 1880 he was elected County Treasurer and began merchandising at St. Stephens under the firm name of Grisham & Moseley. In 1883 he moved to and conducted the watering resort, at Healing Springs. In 1884 he bought the Peevy Landing and farm where he conducted a farm, mercantile business and warehouse. He was again elected Sheriff and Tax Collector in 1888 and moved back to St. Stephens where he has resided ever since. He opened a mercantile business at this time which has continued to this day successfully under the firm name of W.A. Moseley & Co. During the years 1888 to 1890 he conducted a successful drug business at Faunsdale, which he sold out.

His official life was one without a blemish and gave universal satisfaction to his constituency; every duty entrusted to him was discharged without fear or favor alike to friend or foe. His business career has been a success, and his dealings have always been characterized by scrupulous honesty.

Mr. Moseley's political record has been one of charming consistency, unselfish and earnest work. He has always been a Democrat of the truest type, and has served in the councils of the party ever since he attained his majority. For 15 years he was Chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, always spending money and time for the benefit and success of the organization, and to his indefatigable efforts alone, the party is indebted for more than one victory. Always fair and honest, he has commanded the respect and esteem of the opposition and sustained an enviable reputation at all times. He has often represented his county in the state councils of the party and at present is a member of the District Executive Committee.

In 1892 Mr. Moseley established the first newspaper the county had since Old St. Stephens was the capitol, and to this good day THE WASHINGTON COUNTY NEWS, the eleventh anniversary of which this edition commemorates, goes weekly to a large and appreciative number of readers in this and adjoining counties. As editor of this paper he has made a reputation for fairness and justice that has attracted attention throughout the state.

A gentleman of congenial and pleasant address, of broad mind and much enterprise in business affairs, we gracefully class him as one of our most substantial citizens, with a clean record and worthy of confidence, and it is hoped he may live to round out a period of perpetual usefulness.

Mrs. Julia Payne-Moseley is a most excellent lady, whose life and deeds stamp her a true Christian. She is a friend of the poor and a sympathizer with the afflicted and many a star will sparkle in her crown for her charitable deeds. She diversifies her time in her model domestic domain with literature in which she takes a lively interest, and is an entertaining conversationalist.

Miss Lola Moseley, Music Teacher

Miss Lola Moseley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Moseley, of St. Stephens, is the accomplished music teacher for this term of the Mobile District High School. Her early training in both literature and music was gained from Mrs. M.E. Slaughter. She attended in 1895 one term of the West Point (Miss) Female College, and the following year attended the Mobile District High School taught by Prof. Vaughn. The following years 1897–8 she attended the private school of Miss Fannie Young, in St. Stephens, and concluded her schooling with three years at the famous Judson. Music has ever been her specialty, and in this she is thorough, being one of the most competent musicians in this section, and in every way qualified to fill the important position she now occupies. Miss Moseley is a consecrated, Christian young lady, a devout member of the M.E. Church, South, and is loved and esteemed by all who are favored with her acquaintance. Her class is progressing nicely, and her efforts are highly satisfactory to the principal and patrons.

Hon. Dabney Palmer

Hon. Dabney Palmer was born and raised in Wilcox county, and moved to Washington county six years ago. He is a practical farmer, having done nothing else during his long and useful life, he being now 68 years of age. Mr. Palmer stated that he did not leave Wilcox because he could not make a livelihood, but on the other hand he was doing well there, but he considered Washington county one of the best agricultural sections in the world, and he could not understand why others could not see it as he did. He related numerous instances to substantiate his assertion, one was of a man who came to this county several hundred dollars in debt and bought a farm considered almost worthless on a credit, and in a few years had paid all he owed, paid for his farm, owned valuable stock and farming implements and was doing well.

Mr. Palmer purchased a wooded tract of land known as the Pugh place across the road in front of Mr. T.C. Bowling's place at Leroy. He cleared it up and built a beautiful home, set out and planted fruit trees and grape vines, and now gathers from his orchard all the fruit he wants. He has growing, one hundred pecan trees. He says everything will grow here and it is the greatest country for Irish and sweet potatoes he ever saw. He raises 30 bushels of corn to the acre with vegetable fertilizer. He says he has many offers to sell out at a big profit, but he prefers to hold his Washington county farm.

Mr. Palmer was honored by being sent to represent this senatorial district in the constitutional convention, where he was a conservative and valuable member. It was the first political office he ever held, and he very much appreciated it. He is a member of the Baptist church and a good citizen.

Treasurer W.A. Payne

The office of county treasurer is conspicuous as one of the most important in the gift of the people. Mr. W.A. Payne, the present incumbent, is regarded as one of the most efficient and accommodating officials the county ever had.

Mr. Payne was born in Dale county in 1866 and moved with his parents to Clarke county in 1874, where he lived and secured a limited education at the public schools and attending the old Morgan Institute eight months. In 1886 he came to Washington county and began clerking for J.F. Granade at Frankville at a salary of $10 per month, and in 1890 became a partner in this firm, which continued four years. In 1893 he married Miss Molly W. Dent of McIntosh, and the union was blessed with three children, two of which are now living. September 1, 1895 he moved to St. Stephens and began merchandising and was very successful. In 1900 he was nominated and elected county treasurer. When he came into office on Sept.

Soon after the death of his father in 1687, Samuel Hancock may have gone to live with his uncle Robert Hancock in Henrico, although according to the will of his grandmother, he was to be placed in charge of Edward Moseley, his cousin. Edward and Arthur Moseley appear in Henrico records as early as 1689.

In 1705, Samuel Hancock is shown in the Quit Rent Rolls as owning 100 acres of land. In 1724, he, together with Arthur Moseley, patented 500 acres of land in Henrico County. On March 6, 1726, Samuel Hancock and Arthur Moseley, Jr., are joint parties to a deed witnessed by John Anderson, John Osborne and Will Cheatham, as also in 1735, in a deed witnessed by William Baugh, John Cobbs and William Bass, Jr. On March 27, 1729, Samuel Hancock deeded Gilbert Bowman 250 acres of land, witnessed by John Green, Samuel Hudson, and Edward (X) Loster.

Samuel and Johan Hancock had at least two children according to a deed of Robert Hancock in 1708, wherein, mention is made of "either of my Daughter Johan Hancock's children." The will of Samuel Hancock probably perished in the destruction of the Henrico County records of that period, but that he was living as late as 1733 is evidenced by a deed he made during that year to Samuel Bowman, witnessed by John Green, Edward Osborne and John Burton.

8. Issue of Johan[3] (Hancock) and Samuel Hancock:

i. ———[4] Hancock.

19. ii. Samuel[4] Hancock.

9. Sarah[3] Hancock, daughter of Johan[2] (Ligon) and Robert Hancock; married October, 1688/9, Henrico Co., Va., Arthur Moseley, son of Arthur Moseley of Lower Norfolk Co., Va., who was the son of William and Susanna (Cockroft) Moseley.

William Moseley came to America in 1649, with his wife and two sons, Arthur and William Moseley. He was granted land in Lynnhaven Parish, Lower Norfolk Co., (now Princess Anne) on Broad Creek, where was built "Rolleston", named for "Rolleston Hall," Staffordshire, England, the home of the Moseley family.

Arthur Moseley was born 1655, and on May 16, 1692, he was "sworn Leather sealer" in Henrico. He served on the Jury in Henrico, August 1, 1699. His will was probated in Henrico Co., Va., February 22, 1728/9, and mentions: sons Arthur and William; daughter Mary Giles and her son Arthur; sons Robert, Thomas and Francis; daughter Sarah Walker.

Henrico County Patent Book 10, p. 247: Arthur Moseley was granted 500 acres at Butterwood Swamp, April 16, 1716. Book 12, p. 14: Granted 400 acres on north side of Swift Creek and East side of Tomahawke Creek, July 9, 1724.

9. Issue of Sarah[3] (Hancock) and Arthur Moseley:

20. i. Arthur[4] Moseley.
21. ii. William[4] Moseley.

iii. Mary[4] Moseley, m. Mr. Giles, and had issue a son, Arthur[5] Giles.

iv. Robert[4] Moseley.
v. Thomas[4] Moseley.
vi. Francis[4] Moseley.

III. RICHARD[2] LIGON'S CHILDREN

10. Matthew[3] Ligon, son of Richard[2] and Mary (Worsham) Ligon, was born about 1680/85, Henrico Co., Va., and was evidently the eldest son of Richard Ligon, as he was appointed the executor of his father's will.

Tarleton, John, Robert and Jacob Woodson, executors of the will of John Woodson, deceased, dated November 25, 1715, sued Matthew Ligon, executor of Richard Ligon in Henrico, May Court, 1724.*

Mathew Ligon married Elizabeth Anderson before 1710. In that year, Mathew Ligon and his father, Richard Ligon, sold land to Richard Grills, and Elizabeth, wife of said Mathew, relinquished her right of dower. It is surmised that Elizabeth Anderson was the wife of Mathew Ligon, as Mathew Anderson, Jr., of Prince George County, in his will dated 1718, mentions sister, Elizabeth Liggon, "one Indian boy."

Mathew Ligon died in Cumberland Co., Va., in the year 1764. Cumberland Co., Va. Will Book 1, p. 299: Will of Matthew Ligon of Southam Parish, Cumberland County, Virginia, dated April 21, 1764, and proved at Cumberland Court House September 24, 1764, mentions son James, one negro man Sam; son Richard, one negro woman named Amea, stock, cattle, household goods and whatsoever things, and his heirs; executor, son Richard; witnesses, Thomas Ligon, William Ligon, Frances Ligon; security, George Radford.

ELISHA MOSELY

Members of the Mosley family have told the compiler that according to family tradition, Elisha Mosely was a brother of Colonel Richard R. Mosley. He was born May 1, 1804 and died December 12, 1882. Elisha's wife was Mary Mosely. She joined the Bethany Baptist Church at Burnt Corn July 1832 by baptism. Elisha Mosely was baptized June 1833 and was appointed church clerk in November 1833. He was made a Deacon of this church in April 1836. He requested to be relieved of his duties as church clerk in 1836 and he and his wife were dismissed by letter in 1839. Elisha Mosely served as Postmaster at Burnt Corn February 19, 1828.

According to tradition, the two brothers, Richard and Elisha, had disagreements and Richard's family began spelling the name MOSLEY. Elisha and family moved to Georgia and they were the parents of 16 children. He died in Meridian, Mississippi.

PASCAGOULA — On a quiet cul-de-sac in Pascagoula, twin bouquets of yellow ribbons and a sign that pleads "God Bless America" mark the Moseley home.

Inside, Ronnie Moseley waits to hear if her twin sons will go to war.

Moseley sat with her family Monday night and watched President Bush give a 48-hour warning to Saddam Hussein to leave Iraq. Sitting in her living room, Moseley kept her hand to her mouth, but did not cry. Today was a good day, she said. Some days her cheeks stay damp with salty tears.

Phillip Moseley

One son, 2nd Lt. Phillip Moseley, is already at Virginia Beach in Kuwait. His brother, 2nd Lt. Tim Moseley, is still at Fort Stewart in Georgia, but could head for Kuwait at any time. He has promised he'll call his mother before he leaves for foreign soil.

"You can feel your heart breaking," Moseley said. "They're going to be in so much danger. It just strikes terror in my heart."

Moseley said the next two days of Bush's deadline will be tough, but she is prepared for war. She understands the cost of conflict.

"Two days is too long," said her daughter-in-law, Jenny. "He's given them enough time already."

Jenny, who is five months pregnant with her third child, is resolved that

MRS. HELEN LAWSON COUNTS THE DAYS IN MARCH
...Which Have Special Meaning In Her Family

For Ellisville Family March Is Anniversaries

By CORA BLACK
Staff Writer

Shurr, there's a bit of the Irish in 'er . . . but there is no red hair, and no freckles to prove it. However, she does know her father is of Scotch-Irish descent, and she celebrates the anniversary of her birth on a day important to all Irishmen, March 17 . . . St. Patrick's Day.

She is the slim, trim Mrs. Helen Lawson of Ellisville, and the month of March brings a number of anniversaries to the family.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hill of Runnelstown, were married March 2, 1928. Four of their five children were born in March, one on the 15th, Helen on the 17th, another on the 22, and one on the 30th.

HAVE 5 CHILDREN

Mr. and Mrs. Lawson (her husband is Howard Lawson) have five children, a daughter 17 years old, a son 16, a son 12, one 10, and the youngest son, eight years old. The ten-year-old will turn 11 this March 25, another important date on the March calendar. They are in school at [illegible] to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Hill. Everybody brings his favorite food, and what with five birthdays and a wedding anniversary claiming dates on the March calendar, the celebration is a gala one.

This day is usually the third Sunday, falling on the 16th this year, when the family will again gather for the annual visit.

ON PAULDING ROAD

The Lawsons have lived in Ellisville 14 years. Their home is on Paulding Road, which was formerly the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Vanderford. Mrs. Lawson is one of the supervisors at Movie Star plant.

Her brothers and sisters (one of whom is a red-head) are scattered: one in Petal, one in Hattiesburg, the other two in Mobile, Ala., and Lake Charles, La.

March with a meaning . . . it is strictly that for the Hill-Lawson clan . . . this clan with a smidge of the Irish in 'em, and proud of it!

Quarter Century Milepost Reached By Fourteen Laurel Employees In February

A pattern of useful service to Masonite appears to have been the philosophy of this group of new twenty-five year men, if one is to judge by remarks on the occasion of the awarding of their commemorative watches. Front row left to right: C. C. Mosely, Walter Booher, Oscar Holifield, H. J. Long, and Cleve Smith. Back row, left to right: Columbus Wallace, Roland Sampson, John H. Gore, C. E. Sumrall, Earl Anderson, George C. Harvey, and Ed Sims. Troy Walters had to leave before we made the picture and J. M. Williams was forced to miss the presentation.

The constantly growing list of employees who have completed twenty-five years of service has again been swelled. This time by fourteen good men and true. These are men who have grown as Masonite has grown. Back in 1941 when these fellows joined us, there were only three production units, one tempering plant and about 1,200 employees.

These are the men who wrote some of the opening chapters in the thrilling saga of the hardboard industry. They have seen the industry unfold like a ripening cocoon and like the larva which emerges as a beautiful butterfly, they have seen Masonite's product line swelled with many new products as the old familiar brown hardboard comes from our Coating plants in striking and colorful Royalcote in a wide variety of patterns. Isn't it too bad really, that many of these fellows will soon be sitting on the sidelines cheering on a new team as Masonite continues to grow.

Since the writer is one of them, he knows the thrill of reaching this important milestone, and on behalf of fellow Quarter Century men, welcomes this stalwart group to the inner circle.

Here they are - and their departments: Earl T. Anderson, Shipping; John H. Gore, Shipping; George C. Harvey Shipping; Oscar B. Holifield, Maintenance; Herbert J. Long, Shipping; Clinton C. Mosely, Shipping; Roland Sampson, Shipping; Ed Sims, Warehouse; Cleveland Smith, Shipping; Charlie E. Sumrall, Maintenance; Columbus Wallace, Shipping; Troy L. O. Walters, Shipping; James M. Williams, Unit 1 Production; and Walter Booher, Electrical.

On February 28, ceremonies recognize these new 25-year men, and paying tribute to their

Program for disabled in new spot

By NATALIE CHAMBERS
Mississippi Press Staff

The IAM-CARES program in Jackson County has moved to a new building and offering a multitude of services to the disabled.

Mrs. Julie S. McKeown, area project director/job placement specialists said, "We're a Project with Industries Program, funded with a grant from the Rehab Services Administration (RSA)." It is the only federal program of its kind in the state.

She said the five-year grant was obtained by the International Association of Machines and Aerospace Workers, after being applied for by the district local, in October 1991.

"Our whole purpose is job placement," she said. "They have to be vocational rehabilation eligible."

Counselor Stephen Gullett, of the Governor's Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, said clients must "possess physical/mental handicap that limits you from employment. And then there has to be a reasonable expectation that you can go back to gainful employment with help through our services."

One client is Tommy Moseley. Moseley, of Pascagoula, is confined to a wheelchair, due to injuries from a trampoline accident. He recently completed a special computer training program and is now seeking gainful employment as a computer programmer. Rehab engineering, another branch of Vocational Rehabilitation, recently modified Moseley's van so he will be able to drive the vehicle to a job.

Moseley, 23, said, "One of (vocational rehabilitation) main goals is to get people with disabilities as independent as possible."

Gullett said, "We want them to function in society like anybody else."

Clients must be at 18 years old.

Gullett's job is to prepare the client for employment. He said client referrals come from a multitude of sources. "We're concentrating a lot now on special education students," he said.

Mrs. MeKeown said, "They can't just spend $40,000 to $50,000 on a client and that client not go role of vocational rehabilitation, it's to help make that person independent and employed."

Mrs. McKeown is involved with job placement. She works with clients after they've been assisted by Gullet to reenter the work force. She also works with the deaf.

She said IAM-CARES has to place 90 clients a year.

"We go out in the community, we meet with employers on a regular basis," she said. "We assist with the resumes, help prepare them for an interview. A lot of times we just flat set up the interview for the client."

Working with Mrs. McKeown is Nancy Vierling, job placement specialists who works primarily in Harrison and Hancock counties.

On Thursday, April 9, the Mississippi Gulf Coast Projects with Industry Advisory Council will host a seminar-dinner designed to provide information to employers concerning the American with Disabilities Act. The banquet will be held at The Great Southern Club, One Hancock Plaza, Gulfport.

Guest speaker will be John A. Lancaster, who serves on the Executive Assistant for the President's Committee on the Employment of People with Disabilities.

He is considered to be one of the most knowledgeable experts on the ADA.

Mrs. McKeown said additional information on the agency and banquet can be obtained by calling her at 769-2323. IAM-CARES is located at 2129 Canty St., Pascagoula and is open five days a week from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mrs. McKeown recommends clients call for appointment.

IAM-CARES is an acronym of International Association of Machinists Center for Administering Rehabilitation and Employment Services.

CHILDREN OF THE WEEK

This adorable group are the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lawson who make their home on Paulding Road.

Shirley Faye, the big sister, will be 6 years old on Friday, Oct. 11, and since it is the day after The Progress-Item comes out, we will wish Shirley Faye a very happy birthday from all of us. She is a brunette with hazel eyes, and is enjoying learning to color in her books at school.

Michael is the middleman, a blonde with hazel eyes, and a real outdoor look, with dark olive skin. He is a cowboy all morning, but a TV fan in the afternoon, watching the Westerns and the Little Rascals.

The curley haired little man on the end is Randall, or as he is affectionately known, "Randy." Just 14 months old, he is learning to talk, and his first word was Daddy, whom he dearly loves. Randy is a dancer, and cuts a rug every time the music starts. Strangely enough the only TV program that interests him at all is the Dance Party. He keeps the whole family hopping, and it is a hard task for Mike and his Daddy to slip away from him for their hunting trips.

All of the children love to visit their grandparents' homes, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Lawson in Ovett, and Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hill in Runnelstown.

BETTY KIMBERLY MOSELEY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Moseley of Pascagoula, formerly of Laurel and Ellisville, announce the birth of their third daughter, whom they have named Betty Kimberly She was born June 22 in the Singing River Hospital in Pascagoula and weighed seven pounds, six ounces. The Moseley's other daughters are Charla Sue and Patti Lynn.

Mrs. Moseley is the former Vera Sue Lawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Lawson of Ellisville. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Moseley of Ellisville.

J. HERMAN FANT

A former resident of Ellisville, J. Herman Fant, 37, of Robertsdale, Ala., died Sunday in a Mobile, Ala., hospital from a heart attack. His death was unexepcted, although he had been ill for several weeks.

Funeral services were held Monday, 2 p.m., in Foley, Ala. Burial was in Robertsdale Cemetery.

He leaves his widow, Mrs Betty Lawson Fant, also a former Ellisville resident; two daughters Diane Fant and Susan Fant; one son, Stanley Fant, all of Robertsdale; parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fant, Route 1, Ellisville; three sisters, Mrs. Louise Pilgrim, Route 1, Taylorsville; Mrs. Estus Shows, Soso; Mrs. Charles Kynes, Compton, Calif; two brothers, Preston Fant and Thurman Fant, Ellisville.

Retires After 25 Years

ELLISVILLE, Miss. — O. W. Lawson, after 25 years with Jones County Junior College, has retired. Most of the time, he was with the maintenance crew, but when the Thomas H. Harris Science Building was constructed, he became maintenance supervisor of this unit.

Before coming to JCJC as an employe, he drove a school bus from Union Community to JCAHS and Junior College for several years, making for himself a niche all his own in the life of the school.

At that time he lived in the Union Community, where he and Mrs. Lawson reared a family of two daughters and one son. In 1963 the Lawsons moved to Ellisville, on Highway 29. Mrs. Lawson was the former Miss Dovie Holliman, and they have 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

"Mr. and Mrs. Lawson have given many years of faithful service to the school, and to their community. We hate to see Mr. Lawson leave our campus, but we wish them many leisure years to enjoy their retirement," said President Terrell Tisdale.
